

I do not support any limitations on satellite radio programing. I pay for it and should get whatever I want, including local programing such as traffic and weather.